Name of the Course: B. A. –III

Name of the Paper: Introduction to the Structure and Function of Modern English
(Paper-XVI)
Semester: VI

(Credits: 04) (Total lectures: 60)

Preamble:

The paper, as its name suggests, introduces the students to various structures of modern English and their functions. It familiarizes them with the inter-relations of the units in a structure. Moreover, it makes them realize how language varies according to the medium in which it is put, the relationship or the relative distance between the addresser and the addressee(s), and the function it fulfils in communication. It aims to help them use correct structures, and use appropriate words and expressions to convey various meanings.

Objectives:

- To acquaint the students with the classification of sentence
- To acquaint them with the processes of subordination and coordination
- To acquaint them with the structures and functions of subordinate clauses
- To introduce them to the basic and derived structures
- To introduce them to discourse analysis with reference to mode, tenor and domain
- To introduce them to a few more communicative concepts other than the ones prescribed in the preceding semester

Course Outcomes:

By the end of the course the students will be able to:

- Identify the simple and complex sentences
- Know the difference between subordination and coordination
- Derive structures from the basic ones
- Analyse a discourse with reference to its mode, tenor and domain
- Use appropriate words and expressions to communicate.
